

Shock Site

From Encyclopedia Dramatica

This article needs moar links, articles and details on each of these sites, including discussion of content and whether each contains a video or an image.

You can help by adding moar links, articles and details on each of these sites, including discussion of content and whether each contains a video or an image (https://encyclopediadramatica.rs/index.php?title=Shock\_Site&action=edit).

Shock sites are what make the internet great. They are a perfect way to cause drama in a wide variety of retarded groups. However, if the group is not sufficiently retarded, or internet experienced, or the site is not shocking enough, you'll just end up being a huge failure at life. Handle with care.

Shock Site is part of a series on Shock Sites.

There are four standard ways to display shocking content:

[Delicious Cake]

1. Pic - Static image
  - Earliest notorious example: Goatse
2. Flash loop - Short looping SWF video clip, usually set to music
  - Earliest notorious example: Meatspin
3. Video - Extended video, usually not set to music
  - Earliest notorious example: Swap.avi
4. Browser-fuckers - A complex way of displaying shock content that crashes your browser or fucks your computer in some way. And unlike the other three, you can't fap to that.
  - Earliest notorious example: Last Measure

Sites consisting entirely of text are not shock sites per se, but there have long existed both short and long shocking text passages (e.g. Raping Little Suzy).

Shocking, no?

2. Site-specific Misdirects
  - Hey guys, go to [http://\[whatever\].on.nimp.com](http://[whatever].on.nimp.com) for free/information on/etc. [whatever] links to Last Measure

Nontraditional Shock Sites

Nontraditional shock sites host content that is shocking or generally offensive, but requires a bit of exploration for full effect. These may contain "believable" content (i.e. offer to sell something that is offensive but that seems at least marginally reasonable).
